Foreword

The Residential Property Tribunal has continued to receive a wide variety of applications in the last year, 184 in total, 104 of which were cases before the RPT, 50 cases were Leasehold Valuation cases and 30 were rent cases. As noted last year, rent determinations are largely in relation to increases of rent in converted contracts under the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. The RPT is at the forefront in dealing with specific Welsh legislation, including the Housing (Wales) Act 2014. The decisions of all cases are available on the RPT website for any interested reader.

The Welsh government duly produced a White Paper on 'A New Tribunal System for Wales' in June 2023 and the responses to the consultation are being considered. Amongst many proposals is the proposed chamber structure for the devolved Welsh tribunals and a proposed new appeal tribunal for Wales. If in due course an Act is passed by the Senedd to implement the proposals, it will be another significant step in Wales developing its own jurisdiction and administrative justice system alongside those courts and tribunals that remain under the remit of HMCTS.

The established pattern of working for the tribunal is now a mixture of in-person and remote video hearings which seems to be working well for tribunal users/litigants, members and staff. This is now likely to remain the case in the future.

In November 2023 the tribunal held its annual conference in Ruthin, North Wales in a reputedly haunted venue. The conference was well attended and not even the putative ghost of Hague on Leasehold Enfranchisement could dampen the contributions and enthusiasm of all who attended. It was, as ever, a worthwhile and valuable training event attended by the President of Welsh Tribunals Sir Gary Hickinbottom.

Since my last report was written there has been considerable change amongst the membership. The most significant and saddest was the untimely death of Surveyor member Mark Taylor in October 2023 from cancer within a few months of his diagnosis. Mark was a reliable and enthusiastic member of the tribunal who also sat in the First Tier Tribunal Property Chamber in England and impressed all who worked with him with his expertise and knowledge. We greatly miss him and will continue to do so.

We have also received the resignations of surveyors Anna Harrison, David Jones, Jo Coupe and John Singleton. David and John in particular were members of long standing and had given many years of valuable service to the tribunal with unstinting good humour and expertise. Anna and Jo were more recent appointments with Jo leaving us to take up a full-time post in the First Tier Tribunal, reflecting the high calibre of her work. Our loss is very much England's gain. Surveyor Peter Tompkinson has also left the tribunal at the expiry of his current term to deal with his busy private practice.

We have also lost the services of Tribunal Judges Vicky Smith and Andrew Grant who have both resigned in the last year. I wish to place on record my thanks to all of those members who have left the tribunal for their significant contributions to our work.

The term of office of Surveyor/Valuer member Roger Baynham has also recently come to an end due to the rules on the mandatory retirement age. Roger has been a constant presence since my involvement with the RPT started in 2008 and his contribution to the tribunal over many years has been incalculable, not just with the quality of his work, but the lightness with which he wears his learning and wisdom and his generosity in sharing that knowledge with newer colleagues. For me, he is as close to irreplaceable as it is possible to get and his practical knowledge of the housing markets in Wales can surely not be bettered. Thank you for your many years of service Roger.

Recruiting new surveyor members is a priority for the tribunal, and the Judicial Appointments Commission will run a recruitment exercise later in 2024. I have recently recommended the appointment of new legal members using the cross-ticketing powers in the Wales Act 2017 and hope that such high-quality new members will continue to strengthen the Tribunal.

Finally, this will be my last report as President of the RPT as I move to a new legal role within Welsh Tribunals. Vice-President Trefor Lloyd will guide the tribunal in the months ahead until the appointment of my successor to whom I wish every good fortune in this important, varied and challenging role. I wish to thank all my colleagues in the RPT past and present with whom I have worked, sat with and learned so much from, for your professionalism and support.

The new President will be fortunate, as I have been, to benefit from the great knowledge, support and efficiency of Liz Williams, our case administrator who ensures that the tribunal continues to provide access to justice to litigants in Wales, and to whom I owe enduring gratitude for her work and good humour whatever the circumstances.

Richard Payne

Basis for the Tribunal

The Residential Property Tribunal Wales (RPT Wales) is an independent tribunal that has been set up to resolve disputes relating to private rented and leasehold property.

The RPT Wales was established under the Housing Act 2004 as the umbrella organisation with responsibility for Rent Assessment Committees, Leasehold Valuation Tribunals and Residential Property Tribunals.

The overriding aim of the RPT Wales is to:

- provide a high performing and cost effective customer service for tribunal users and its members,
- ensure that all aspects of the tribunal's work are administered in such a way as to achieve fair, independent and timely adjudication, and
- operate within the legislative framework applicable in Wales.

The Tribunal's Functions

The Rent Assessments Committees deal with disputes relating to:

- Rent – both fair rents, and
- Market rents – under assured and assured short-hold tenancies.

The Leasehold Valuation Tribunals deal with disputes relating to:

- Leasehold disputes;
- Leasehold, service charges;
- Leasehold enfranchisement and lease extension for houses and flats, and
- Tenants' association applications for recognition.

The Residential Property Tribunals deal with disputes relating to:

- Empty dwelling management orders;
- Interim and final management orders;
- Licensing of houses in multiple occupation and selective licensing of other residential property;
- Housing, health and safety rating system;
- Park homes;
- Local authority gypsy and traveller sites, and
- Licensing under the Housing (Wales) Act 2014, Rent Smart Wales.

The Tribunal's Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the RPT Wales is set out in the following legislation:

Rent Assessment Committees:

- The Rent Act 1977;
- The Housing Act 1988;
- The Local Government and Housing Act 1989, and
- The Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016.

Leasehold Valuation Tribunals:

- Landlord and Tenant Act 1985;
- Landlord and Tenant Act 1987;
- The Leasehold Reform Act 1967;
- The Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993, and
- Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.

Residential Property Tribunals:

- Mobile Homes Act (Wales) 2013;
- Housing Act 2004, and
- Housing (Wales) Act 2014.

The Tribunal's Regulations

Regulations governing the tribunal's procedures are contained in the following legislation:

- Rent Assessment Committees (England and Wales) Regulations 1971;
- Leasehold Valuation Tribunals (Procedure) (Wales) Regulations 2004;
- Residential Property Tribunal Procedures and Fees (Wales) Regulations 2016, and
- Mobile Homes (Site Rules) (Wales) Regulations 2014.

The Tribunal's Process

To make an application or appeal you must complete and send the relevant application form to the RPT Wales. Applications are encouraged via email but will also be accepted in hard copy by post or hand delivered. Certain types of applications dealt with by the RPT Wales incur an application fee and/or hearing fee.

Before almost every Tribunal hearing, the Tribunal panel will conduct an inspection of the premises relating to the application. The Tribunal needs to visit the premises to consider its state and condition or any physical aspects which will help it in reaching a decision.

At a tribunal hearing the Tribunal panel is composed of a legally qualified chairperson, 1 professional member, or in some cases 2 professional members depending on the complexity of the case, and 1 lay member. Tribunal hearings will normally be held in public and take place near to the property in question.

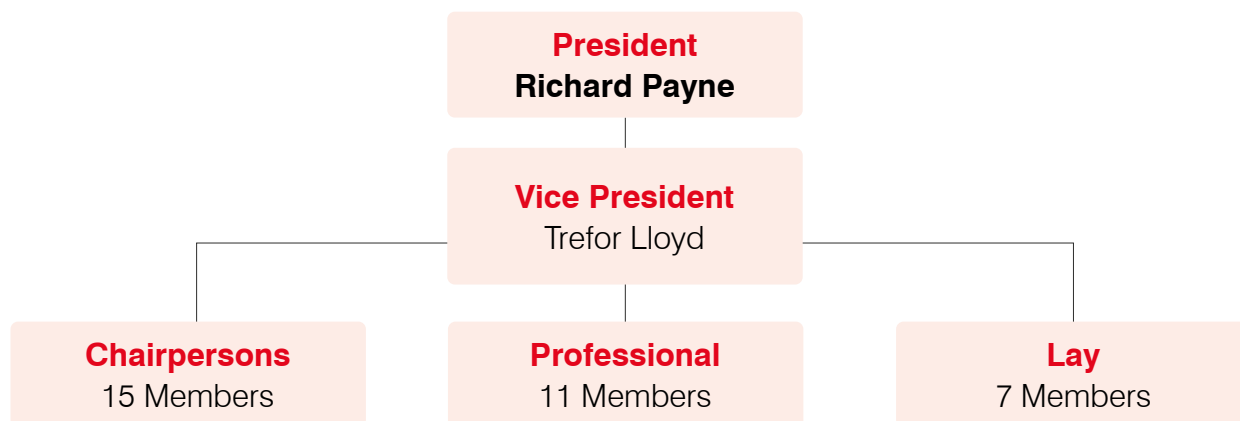

The Tribunal publishes its decisions on the website for the RPT Wales. Decisions of Rent Assessment Committees, Leasehold Valuation Tribunals and Residential Property Tribunals can be appealed on limited grounds to the Upper Tribunal. Permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal must first be sought from the RPT Wales for decisions made by Leasehold Valuation Tribunals and Residential Property Tribunals.

Full information and guidance, about the tribunal and its procedures, is provided on the website for the RPT Wales. Alternatively please contact the tribunal secretariat for further information or if you would like to receive publications in a different format. The contact details can be found on page 7.

Members of the Tribunal

The Lord Chancellor is responsible for the appointment and re-appointment of chairpersons and the Welsh Government is responsible for the appointment and re-appointment of professional and lay members. The Welsh Ministers are also responsible for nominating a president and vice president of the tribunal from the panel of chairpersons. Appointments are made following the advertisement of vacancies and competitive interview by the Judicial Appointments Commission for chairpersons and Welsh Government for the other members.

President & Vice President	Are the judicial leads of the tribunal.
Chairpersons	Are lawyers and have responsibility for conducting proceedings at hearings and advising the tribunal on matters of law. The chairperson will write decisions and set directions where necessary.
Professional Members	Are surveyors and valuers and bring a wide range of relevant knowledge and experience to each hearing.
Lay Members	Have a wide range of other relevant knowledge and experience which they bring to each hearing.
Secretariat	The day-to-day administration is largely delegated to the secretariat who deals with all the preliminary paperwork and the processing of applications to the tribunal. The secretariat consults the chairperson on all legal points arising during the preliminary pre-hearing stages of the proceedings and passes on the chairperson's rulings and directions in writing to the parties. The secretariat acts as a point of contact for chairpersons, members and tribunal users and attends some hearings to help with the efficient running of proceedings.

Achievement against key performance indicators

To monitor how effectively services are delivered, we have key performance indicators aimed at measuring two key aspects of our business; the speed of our service and the quality of service through customer satisfaction.

To measure the speed of our service, we have a series of primary performance indicators based on the time taken to process an application – from receipt to the Hearing or disposal.

To measure customer satisfaction, we used an indicator that is derived from periodic customer surveys issued with Tribunal decisions.

Speed of our service
